CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY HEMECARE

DECEMBER

I just really want to know how Christmas gets here faster each year once we become adults, but as children it can't arrive soon enough? If any of you can explain this, I would love for you to share your comments and I will post them in January's newsletter.

This year I look forward to sharing the holiday with my son Steve who just complete his CFP exam which he studied over a year for, and with my daughter Melanie who will have finished her first semester as a college freshman. She calls me every time she receives an A on a paper. I guess when I don't hear from her for a while that means the grade wasn't so good? For myself, I will have completed one semester towards earning the Gerontology certification. We will have much to celebrate! And the reason this is all possible?

JESUS CHRIST!

Blessings to you and your family as you share yet another year of Christmas hope in our Lord and Savior.

SOME SIMPLE HOLIDAY CHEER

Christmas gift suggestions:

To your enemy, forgiveness.

To an opponent, tolerance.

To a friend, your heart.

To a customer, service.

To all, charity.

To every child, a good example.

To yourself, respect.

Oren Arnold

At Christmas a man is at his finest towards the finish of the year;
He is almost what he should be when the Christmas season's here;
Then he's thinking more of others than he's thought the months before,

And the laughter of his children is a joy worth toiling for.

He is less a selfish creature than at any other time;
When the Christmas spirit rules him he comes close to the sublime.

Edgar Guest

Christmas is forever, not for just one day,
for loving, sharing, giving, are not to put away
like bells and lights and tinsel, in some box upon a shelf.
The good you do for others is good you do yourself.

Norman W. Brooks

It came without ribbons,
It came without tags,
It came without packages, boxes, or bags.
Christmas can't be bought from a store...
Maybe Christmas means a little bit more.

TENNIS BALL LESSON

A college professor had the mysterious habit of walking into the lecture hall each morning, removing a tennis ball from his jacket pocket. He would set it on the corner of the podium. After giving the lecture for the day, he would once again pick up the tennis ball, place it into his jacket pocket, and leave the room. No one ever understood why he did this, until one day. . . .

A student fell asleep during the lecture. The professor never missed a word of his lecture while he walked over to the podium, picked up the tennis ball and threw it, hitting the sleeping student squarely on the top of the head.

The next day, the professor walked into the room, reached into his jacket, removed a baseball. . . No one ever fell asleep in his class the rest of the semester!
